before the court. Keeping in view the submission of complainant and accused joint statement of complainant and accused/petitioner statement of accused Shahbaz Ali was recorded and both the complainant and accused party thumb impressed the same.

The parties are co-villager inter se and have patched up the matter before the court which is in the best interest of both the parties. Both the parties particularly the complainant is satisfied with the statement of accused made before the court today and the complainant have got no objection on the grant of bail to the accused/petitioner. If the accused party violates the statement made before this court the complainant may prefer BCA against the accused/petitioner.

In view of the above discussion the bail petition in hand is accepted on the basis of joint statement and the accused/petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to furnishing surety bond in the sum of Rs. 80, 000/- with two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of this court. The sureties must be local and men of means.

File of this Court be consigned to record room after its necessary completion and compilation.
