

Order-9

30.9.2020

Plaintiff present through counsel.

Husband of plaintiff also present in person.

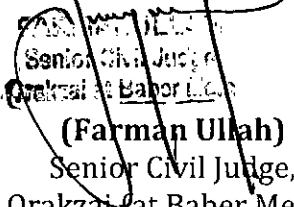

Defendants present through their representative Syed Farhat Abbas.

During case management and scheduling conference, counsel for the plaintiff submitted that the correct year of birth of the plaintiff is 1965 while in her CNIC it has been mentioned as 01.01.1976, which is incorrect. He further submitted that the date of birth of the son of the plaintiff namely Mehboob Khan is 20.10.1985 the (copy of his "CNIC" is already available on file) and thus, the age difference between the son and his mother is only 09 years, which is unnatural and this fact alone clearly establishing that the age of plaintiff was wrongly incorporated in her CNIC. On which representative for defendants stated before the court that due to unnatural gap between he plaintiff and her son, defendant can rectify such a mistake. He expressed his no objection if the case of plaintiff is decreed.

So, keeping in view the unnatural gap of the plaintiff with her son coupled with the no objection on the part of representative for defendants, the suit of plaintiff is decreed in her favour as prayed for. Defendants are directed to correct the date of the plaintiff in their record. No order as to cost.

File be consigned to record room after its completion and compilation.
