

IN THE COURT OF MUHAMMAD AYAZ KHAN
SENIOR CIVIL JUDGE ORAKZAI AT BABER MELA

Order
10/10/2019

Petitioner and respondent along with counsel present.

During the course of proceedings, the learned counsel for the petitioner requested at the bar that the instant petition may be disposed of with the permission to file fresh one with better plaint. The learned counsel for the respondent has got no objection.

Perusal of record reveals that the present petition does not disclose any cause of action as no facts are given in the said petition. If we continue with the present petition, it will serve no purpose and petitioner will get no relief. The law on the subject is very much clear, which provides that the legal defect may be corrected at any stage of the proceeding. Further, natural justice demands that equal opportunities may be given to the petitioner to correct his pleadings.

For above, in present circumstances, the instant petition is hereby disposed of and petitioner is directed to submit better plaint subject to provisions of law.

Case file be consigned to record room.
