State vs Habib Khan

APP for the state present. Accused on bail present.

The accused facing trial submitted, an application for plead guilty which is accepted. As accused pleaded his guilt, therefore, there is no need of recording of evidence against the accused as per available record on file and clear admission, the accused being first offender is repentant of his guilt, therefore, I hereby convict the accused and sentence him to suffer simple imprisonment for a period of 03 years.

Since the accused is first offender and there is nothing on file to reflect upon his character. Therefore, instead of sentencing him at once, the lenient view is taken and is deemed just and proper to require him to be under supervision of District Probation Officer u/s 5 of the probation of offender's ordinance 1960 for a period of 03 years subject to furnishing bail bonds to the tune of Rs. 80,000/- with two local and reliable sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of Probation Officer concerned for keeping peace and good behavior and also not repeating of the same offence for said period. The Probation Officer shall deal with the convict in accordance with law and shall keep strict supervision of the movements and behavior of the convict for the said period.

In case of default or violation, the accused shall be committed to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of 03 years. He shall ensure good behavior during the tenure of the probation of the convict. Copy of the order be sent to Probation Officer, Orakzai alongwith accused and sureties.

Case property being Kalashnikov alongwith 01 fixed charger and 29 rounds of 7.62 bore are hereby confiscated to state and be dealt in accordance with law.

File be consigned to record room after necessary completion and compilation.
