grams, making a total of 6,000 grams of chars.

Hence, the present FIR.

3. It is evident from the record that the accused/petitioner is directly nominated in the FIR and the offence for which she is charged attracts the prohibitory clause of section 497 Cr.P.C. Moreover, sufficient material is available on file which reasonably connect the accused/petitioner with the commission of offence, particularly the statement of driver of the vehicle in which the accused was travelling. Application for FSL is also available on record. Hence, the accused/petitioner is not entitled for the concession of bail at this stage. Accordingly, for the stated reasons, bail petition in hand stands dismissed being meritless.
4. Order announced. File of this Court be consigned to record room after its necessary completion and compilation.
5. Copy of this Order be placed on police/judicial file.
6. This Order is tentative in nature and would have no effect upon the trial of the accused/petitioner.
