Order No. 21	17.02.2025	Plaintiff through attorney alongwith counsel while defendant no. 03 in person and as attorney for rest of the defendants present. Today the case in hand was fixed for plaintiff evidence, however, at the very outset counsel for plaintiff submitted an application for taking special oath on Holy Quran regarding the ownership and possession of the suit property. Vide this order Court intends to dispose of instant application for taking special oath. Arguments heard and record perused. Perusal of the record would reveal that attorney for petitioner in the suit through instant application states that he is ready to take special oath on Holy Quran or in alternate attorney for respondents should take special oath regarding the suit property. In reply to this the respondents no. 03 and as special attorney for rest of the respondents accepted the offer of attorney for petitioner and stated in open Court that he is ready to take special oath in respect of the suit property, that it is the ownership and possession of the defendants. It is also pertinent to mention here that both the parties were ready to take special oath on the Holy Quran in the open Court. In this respect their statements were separately recorded in the presence of elders of the locality. In light of above discussion, the application in hand is allowed. Attorney for plaintiff took special oath on Holy Quran
