Available record perused with the help of valuable assistance put forward by the leaned counsel for the appellant and representative for the respondent, which shows that at para 07 of the judgement of this court the appeal of the appellant is accepted and the judgement and decree of the learned trial court was set aside and consequently the suit of the plaintiff has been decree as prayed for. So, in view of the said order, it is very much clear that the suit of the plaintiff has been decreed as prayed for, there is no need for specifically mentioning the address of the petitioner/plaintiff in the judgment after grant of decree as prayed for in the plaint. The instant review is accepted and disposed of according. No order as to cost. Record be returned to the quarter concerned while file of this court be consigned to record room after its necessary completion and compilation.
