

Order No.02
12.07.2025

Petitioner Wahid Ali through his son namely Musawir Ali present.
Respondent through brother present. Today, the case was fixed for submission of report of bailiff regarding violation of the court order in the suit property.
Report of bailiff received, which is placed on file.

Brief facts as per contents of petition in hand are that plaintiff filed a declaratory suit with permanent injunction against the defendants and ad-interim injunction was granted in favor of plaintiff. Wherein, plaintiff and defendants were restrained from interfering in each other possession over the disputed land until the final disposal of the suit. Through the instant petition the plaintiff alleged that the present respondent violated the court's directive by interfering in the petitioner's possession. He has illegally placed construction blocks in the suit property.

That petitioner filed COC on 26.06.2025 against the said incident. Court directed bailiff to go to the spot and inquire about violation of court orders and submit his report before the court.

Petitioner was heard today. Petitioner stated before the court that, respondent Farhad Ali is residing at Saudi Arabia. Furthermore, bailiff report also verifies the residing of respondent Farhad Ali at Saudi Arabia. Since the respondent is residing in Saudi Arabia, how is it possible that, the respondent violated the court order. Therefore, violation of the same is out of question, resultantly, petition in hand is dismissed being not maintainable. Therefore, petitioner through son namely Musawir Ali is strictly warned not to file such frivolous petitions before the court.

File be consigned to record room after necessary completion and compilation.
