Order 03	20.09.2025	Complainant not present. Complaint's counsel present while respondent no. 06 in person present and remaining respondents through counsel present. The file is fixed today for attendance of respondents. The instant case was earlier dismissed on 23.08.2025 for want of prosecution. Learned counsel for the complainant contended that dismissal of the case was not deliberate and that sufficient cause existed for the absence. It was prayed that the dismissed matter may kindly be restored in the interest of justice. In given circumstances, the court have gone through the record. Record reveals that the instant restoration application is filed for the restoration of previous restoration application which had been dismissed in default. It is also pertinent to metnion here that once the case has been dismissed under Section 369 Cr.P.C., there is no enabling provision to restore the same. It is also noted that the present application is not maintainable in law and has no merits. It is also worth mentioning here that restoration of proceedings is permissible only where

		the statute specifically provides such remedy. In the present matter, no provision of law has been shown which empowers this Court to restore the same. The principle of finality of judicial orders bars reopening of such proceedings unless otherwise provided under law. In view of the above, this Court holds that the application for restoration is not competent and is liable to be dismissed. Accordingly, the application is dismissed being not maintainable, and the file cannot be restored. File be consigned to District Record Room, Orakzai after its proper completion and compilation. Announced 20.09.2025  Muhammad Junaid Alam, Civil Judge -II, Tehsil Courts, Kalaya, Orakzai
