Order 16	18.10.2025	DH absent. JD present. Today, the matter was for recording evidence but when the case was called, neither decree holder nor his counsel appeared before the Court to press the execution proceedings. On perusal of the record, it is observed that DH was absent on previous two dates fixed by the court for proceedings. The decree holder has failed for the third time to appear before the court. Execution proceedings are in the nature of enforcement of a decree, which primarily lies within the responsibility of the decree holder. Unless the decree holder makes himself available and assists the court in carrying forward the proceedings, the Court cannot be expected to execute the decree in absence of necessary pleadings and representation from the decree holder. In the present case, due to absence of the decree holder and failure to attend the Court, no effective proceedings could
