Order No. 12	06.01.2026	Petitioner in person along with counsel present. Respondent No.1 in person along with counsel present. This order decide an application filed for a restraining order filed by plaintiff/petitioner. Brief Account: Learned counsel for petitioner briefly enlisted the merits of his plea for grant of ad-interim. He states that the petitioner is owner in possession of the suit land which has been received through exchange of land/field with the father of the petitioner. He requests for ad-interim injunctive order to restrain the respondents from interference in the suit land. Defendants claim that they have title claim to suit land being joint ownership, and unless proper partition is effected, acts of the plaintiffs are unwarranted. Arguments heard and record perused. Reasoning: Plaintiffs intend and desire to carry out necessary repairs on the structures standing on suit land to preserve them against the inclement weather and nature. In these circumstances, the court deems it fair and just to allow the plaintiffs to carry out necessary constructions on their own risk and cost. Any addition made to the structures on the
