hours who was holding a white plastic envelope in hand. He was stopped. From the said envelope, the complainant recovered 1850 grams of chars garda.

Hence, the present FIR.

3. After hearing both the parties and perusal of the record, it was found that though the accused/petitioner is directly nominated in the FIR.

However, the report of FSL is not available on file to show that whether the recovered substance was actually chars or otherwise. This fact alone makes the case of accused/petitioner one of further inquiry.

4. Hence, in view of what is discussed above, the accused/petitioner is admitted to bail subject to submission of bail bonds to the tune of Rs. 50,000/- with two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of this Court. The sureties must be local, reliable and men of means.
5. Copy of this Order be placed on police/judicial file.

File of this Court be consigned to record room after its necessary completion and compilation.
