pointation of complainant.

Perusal of the record reveals that co-accused namely Muzafar Ali and Waseem Ali are already acquitted from the charges levelled against them under section 249-A Cr. PC, while the present accused was intentionally avoiding his lawful arrest, therefore, court declared as the proclaimed offender and was issued perpetual warrant of arrest against the present accused.

Later on, the present accused was arrested and issued his card of arrest. After completion of investigation, supplementary challan was put in court against the present accused.

Perusal of the case file reveals that the ASHO/complainant in the instant case is the State. No incriminating material has been effected from the possession of the present accused or his pointation. The accused was not arrested at the spot, nor is there any eyewitness account connecting him with the alleged occurrence. Furthermore, the accused persons/party have not specifically charged or implicated each other regarding the commission of the alleged offence. The available record does not disclose sufficient incriminating material warranting continuation of the trial against the accused.

Case Title: _____ Vs _____

Although the accused remained absconding for some time and was subsequently arrested, mere abscondence by itself cannot substitute proof of guilt, where the prosecution evidence is otherwise lacking.

In the circumstances, continuation of the proceedings against the accused would serve no useful purpose and would amount to an abuse of the process of the Court. Consequently, the present accused is acquitted of the charge by extending him the benefit of doubt. His bail bonds, if any, stand cancelled and sureties discharged from the liability. File be consigned to the record room after completion and compilation.
