Order 05	22.07.2026	Petitioner absent. SHO concerned has submitted his report, which is placed on the record. Petitioner has filed the instant application contending that at the time of his arrest on 18.05.2026, the then SHO, namely Jameel, took into possession certain personal belongings from him. It is further averred that although some of the articles have subsequently been returned, the following items are still outstanding and have not been handed over to him namely one simple mobile phone, one touch mobile phone, two torches, one MP3 device, his original CNIC and the CNIC of his father. The petitioner, therefore, prayed for issuance of directions for recovery and return of the aforesaid articles. In response, the report of the concerned SHO has been received and carefully perused. The SHO has categorically denied the allegations levelled by the petitioner and has stated that no such articles were ever taken into police possession. It has further been reported that the claim advanced by the petitioner is incorrect, baseless and without any factual foundation, and that no such property was taken into possession or entered into police record i.e. recovery memo etc.
