Order 01	15.07.2026	Fresh execution petition submitted through counsel. Be entered. Judgment Debtor is already before the court. Case file perused. Counsel for the DH has filed an application for seeking execution on the ground that on 08.06.2026, a decree/judgment was passed wherein directions issued to NADRA department to proceed/execute judgment as per their SOPs, but they could not proceed/execute the said judgment by stating that under their SOPs, a Birth Certificate or other prescribed supporting documents was required for recording date of birth. Perusal of record reveals that representative of defendants has categorically stated in his written statement that there should be at least 16/17 years age difference between parent and their child, therefore, court ordered that to rectify date of birth of plaintiff in accordance with their SOPs, so as to remove unnatural age gap, as required. By words "Defendants are directed to rectify date of birth of plaintiffs as per their SOPs. Suit of plaintiffs are decreed to the extent that NADRA shall rectify date of birth of plaintiffs in accordance with their SOPs, so as to remove
