Order-05	10.09.2026	APP for the State present. OII Aftab Hassan present. Vide this order, this Court intends to dispose of the instant Show Cause Notice, previously issued to OII PS Kalaya U/s 166 PPC. Brief facts of the case are that previously this Court issued showcause notice to OII concerned for submission of complete challan in Case FIR No. 76 dated 06.06.2026 u/s 11(i) 1 & 9(i) 3(c) KPCNSA, within the statutory period of 14-days as per provision of Cr. PC However, IO concerned failed to put in Court the said challan before competent Court. Accordingly, IO concerned was directed by this court to appear in person and submit his written explanation as to why he failed to put in court the same before the Court, hence, instant show cause notice u/s 166 PPC was given to him and he was directed to submit his written reply and show cause as to why he shall not be punished u/s 166 PPC. Accordingly, IO PS Kalaya appeared before this Court in person and submitted his written reply. Now on perusal of the available record, it has been noticed that in reply to instant show cause notice, IO PS Kalaya has stated in his defense that he has submitted complete challans in the cited FIR, however, the same returned due to deficiency in the documents. After completion of documentation proceedings, complete challan was sent to the quarter concerned through PC on 18.08.2026. He further stated at the bar that in future he will be careful and will never commit such act.

In light of the above discussion, this court is of the view that the reply submitted by IO PS Kalaya is satisfactory and furthermore, he also apologized at the bar before this Court and further has assured this court that in future he will be careful.

In given circumstances, this court by taking lenient view and by providing an opportunity to Investigation Officer Police Station Kalaya to mend his ways and bring positive changes in his conduct as well as in performance of his lawful duties, hereby file instant show cause notice without any further proceedings. File be consigned to the record room after its necessary completion and compilation.
