Order No.04	23.09.2026	Parties along with counsel present. Record received. Arguments heard and record perused. This appeal was preferred against the order dated 25.08.2026 passed by the Court of learned Civil Judge-II, Tehsil Courts Kalaya, in Case No. 31/6 of 2026 whereby the application for grant of temporary injunctions was dismissed. The appellant has alleged in his plaint that the suit property, situated at Mishti Mela described with four boundaries in headnote of the plaint, is a joint property. The same is being constructed by respondent without partition between the parties. He also submitted an application for the grant of temporary injunctions to restrain the respondent from raising construction in the suit property. The suit as well as the application for the grant of temporary injunctions were contested by the respondent by submitting his written statement and written reply. The application was dismissed by the trial Court after hearing both the parties through his impugned order; hence, this appeal was preferred.

Case Title: Aziz ur Rehman VS Habar Khan

Serial No of order or proceedings	Date of Order Proceedings	Order or other Proceedings with Signature of Judge or Magistrate and that of parties or counsel where necessary.

Order No.04 23.09.2026		I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record. The respondent, in his written statement, has submitted that the suit property was partitioned between the parties about 20 years back. Both the parties had made constructions on their respective shares which were demolished in a flood in the year 2024. The respondents are reconstructing shops on their share of land as divided earlier. They have also annexed rent agreements with their plaint executed with tenants before the demolition of shops in the year 2024. The appellant has admitted before the trial Court to have raised construction upon his share of land. In such circumstances, the learned trial Court has rightly dismissed the application for the grant of temporary injunctions. This appeal, being devoid of merits, is dismissed. Record of the trial Court be returned with copy of this Order for information, while file of this Court be consigned to record room after its necessary completion and compilation. Announced: 23.09.2026  (HAQ NAWAZ) District Judge, Orakzai at Baber Mela
