Order 08	08.10.2026	DH through counsel present. JD absent. Today, counsel for the decree holder has filed an application seeking blocking of CNIC No. 21603-5987265-1 of the respondent/judgment debtor. It is contended in the application that despite notice/warrants, the judgment debtor has failed to appear before the Court and has willfully avoided compliance of the decree passed by this Court. It is further submitted that the conduct of the judgment debtor reflects intentional non-cooperation with the execution proceedings, and therefore coercive measures are required to ensure compliance with the lawful decree. Perusal of record reveals that on 07.08.2025, judgment debtor/defendant stated that he is indebted to the plaintiff and assured the court to pay Rs. 20,00,000/- (Twenty lacs rupees) to the plaintiff before the stipulated period within 09 months i.e. 07.05.2026, while in addition he will pay interest/profit Rs. 6,00,000/- (Six lac rupees) within the additional 09 months, effected from the end of above date i.e. 07.05.2026. In this respect his admission in the form of statement is recorded. On 08.06.2026, decree holder filed execution petition before the undersigned. That judgment debtor was noticed and warrants issued but he failed to appear before the court to comply with the direction of this Court. The decretal amount is still outstanding and the judgment debtor is deliberately evading the process of law. In these circumstances, the Court is left with no option except to adopt coercive measures to secure the presence of the judgment debtor and to enforce the decree.

In view of the above facts and circumstances, the application filed by the learned counsel for the decree holder is allowed. It is ordered that the CNIC No. 21603-5987268-1 of the respondent/judgment debtor namely Zeenat Ali be blocked forthwith in accordance with law. The concerned authority is directed to ensure strict compliance of this order and to submit a compliance report before the court within 05 days.

File be consigned to record room after its necessary completion and compilation, as adjourned sine die.
