Case Title: Natmina Jan vs Public at large

Serial No of order or proceeding s	Date of Order Proceeding s	Order or other Proceedings with Signature of Judge or Magistrate and that of parties or counsel where necessary
1	2	3
Order No. 02	21.10.2026	Counsel for the petitioner is present. Through the instant miscellaneous petition, the petitioner, namely Natmina Jan seeks transfer of the share of her son, namely Nazim Ali, in her own bank account. It is pertinent to mention that the succession certificate was issued to the petitioners by this Court on 21.04.2026. As per the succession certificate, the respective shares of the other legal heirs have already been disbursed except the share of Nazim Ali as he is presently confined in Central Jail Peshawar. The petitioner, being the mother of Nazim Ali, seeks transfer of his share into her own account through the instant miscellaneous petition. However, the relief sought cannot be granted through the present proceedings and the petitioner has failed to establish the maintainability of the instant miscellaneous petition. In view of the foregoing, it is held that the instant miscellaneous petition not maintainable under the applicable provisions of the Wards Act, accordingly be disposed of. File be consigned to the Record Room after completion and compilation. Announced 21.10.2026  Ijaz Mahsood Senior Civil Judge/JM, Orakzai (at Baber Mela)
