		for the accused. After submission of complete challan, the accused was summoned, copies of the record were provided to him in compliance of section 265-C CrPC and he was formally charge sheeted; however, the accused absented himself during the course of evidence. He was, therefore, proceeded u/s 512 CrPC while the sureties were proceeded u/s 514 CrPC. They were issued a show cause notice that as to why the amount of bond shall not be recovered from them. They submitted reply. After hearing both the parties and perusal of the record, it was found that several opportunities have been provided to the sureties for production of the accused, but they failed to produce him before the Court. Though the sureties have not given any plausible reason for non-production of the accused, but there is nothing available on file that they have stood sureties for any monitory benefit. Both the sureties are of old age. In these circumstances, by taking lenient view, the sureties are directed to pay an amount of Rs. 1000/- each. Receipt of the fine is also handed over to them and their thumb impressions obtained. File be consigned to the record room after its necessary completion and compilation. Announced: 14.10.2026  (HAQ NAWAZ), Sessions Judge, Orakzai at Baber Mela
