Order 06	22.09.2026	Parties alongwith their counsels present. Vide this order the Court intend to dispose of the instant application for extension of temporary injunction for the period of further 06-months, filed by plaintiffs, hereinafter referred as petitioners. Arguments of learned counsels for parties heard. Perusal of the record would reveal that petitioners/plaintiffs are claiming that parties to the suit are legal heirs of one late Pasho Gul alias Ajdar Khan, which after his death devolved upon parties to the suit, which has yet to be partitioned and thus is joint ownership of parties to the suit. Petitioners/plaintiffs were asked time and again for family/private partition, but they refused the same. Lastly, requested for acceptance of application. Contrary to this respondent/defendant no. 01 stated that predecessor of the parties had partitioned the suit property during his life time in the year of 1986 in the presence of Habib Deen and Said Ameen. That respondent/defendant no. 01, had constructed a house with his pension money. That petitioners/plaintiffs had sold their owned field known as Naray Dhanda. Furthermore, the field known as Pasho Gul Dada, which was partitioned in three shares between parties to the suit. That jirgas verdict dated 20.12.2015 & 03.12.2015 were
