		Complete challan against the accused was put in court and after 241-A Cr.P.C proceedings, the accused Sher Azam was pleaded his guilt while today accused Sher Azam pleading his guilt and requested for lenient view. In this respect he also filed an application for pleading his guilt. After pleading his guilt, show cause notice under section 243 Cr.P.C. was given to the accused as to why he should not be convicted. Resultantly, he prayed for lenient view while placing himself at the mercy of this court. It is also pertinent to mention here that there is nothing such available on the record which could suggest that present accused facing trial was previously involved in such like cases. There is also no criminal history of the accused available on the file. Keeping in mind the wholehearted confession of guilt by the accused Sher Azam and being a first offender, a lenient view is taken and accused facing trial is convicted and sentenced for offence under sections 15-AA with simple imprisonment of 06 months. Furthermore, there is nothing on record which could show previous involvement of accused in such like cases, being first offender, thus, the sentence and conviction ibid is
