3. After hearing both the parties and perusal of the record, it was found that the accused/petitioner is directly charged in the FIR for the offence falling under the prohibitory clause of section 497 CrPC. Moreover, sufficient material is available on file which reasonably connects the accused/petitioner with the commission of offence. The route certificate is also available on record. Hence, the accused/petitioner is not entitled for the concession of bail at this stage of the case. Accordingly, for the stated reasons, bail petition in hand stands dismissed being meritless.

4. Copy of this Order be placed on police/judicial file. File of this Court be consigned to record room after its necessary completion and compilation.'
